These guys love to dance! They wore the staff out at our Valentine Dance! Special thanks to Tick's Mobile DJ for playing all the fun tunes. Everyone slept well after the high level aerobics! Haha

Brian's Eye on Entertainment

Madame Webb PG13 *****

This movie was very complicated, and I had to see it twice to understand it better. It is about how Madame Webb who tries to learn what happened on the day she was born. Her mother was on a trip to find and keep a special spider so that it's venom could be used to cure some human diseases. Madam Webb embarks on a long journey to learn what really happened on that day she was born. This movie is about all the things that happened to her on her journey. It was a little too long. The plot could have been simpler with the same good ending. I think it is one of the best movies in this genre.
