WHY CEDARCROFT HOME ?
 THE NUMBER ONE REASON: WE CARE!

Volume 12 Issue 4

The Staff at Cedarcroft Home would like to wish you all a Happy Easter and joyful Resurrection Sunday!

Our new Assistant Activities Director, Karen O'Barnes, played the generous leprechaun's helper on St. Pat's Day! If the resident's weren't wearing any green, she gave them a cool green bracelet to spare them from a pinch, and a special treat from her pot o' gold! Even Dr. Putatunda was able to get a treat! And hey, anyone who gives out gold covered chocolate is tops with us!

April Events:

The first week of April we will begin our new Cooking Classes! The residents who sign up will be divided into small groups each week to experience new culinary treats from the Cedarcroft Gourmet Kitchen! April will start out with Dessert Heaven, including Rice Krispie Treats, Peanut Butter Balls, cookies & more!

April will also bring the start of our new Cedarcroft Choir! We have some excellent voices who've come together to bring joyful sounds of all kinds of music to Cedarcroft. The residents will enjoy weekly rehearsals and special presentations as the year goes by.

We are looking forward to many fun events coming up over the next several months. Stay tuned for information on future activities!

Friends & Family:
 Please mark your calendar for Saturday, May 9! That is the date for our Family Picnic & Softball Tournament! We will be at Cedars of Lebanon State Park, Shelter #7. The game begins at 10:00 AM with the picnic to follow at noon.
