Adopt-A-Resident!

And help them to have a happy Christmas! If you are interested please call Bridgett at 615-449-0825 or e-mail bridgett@cedarcrofthome.org to let her know who or how many men you would like to "adopt". These are our residents who have no family and would otherwise have no gifts for Christmas. It amazes me each year to see these men weep, hoot & holler, and just have an ear-to-ear grin to see that someone has thought of them in such a caring way. Bridgett has a "wish list" for each resident that she will provide for you so you will know more about what your fella would like.

Thank you & Merry Christmas!

BRYAN'S EYE ON MOVIES

Alexander and the Terrible
Horrible No Good Very Bad Day
(Rated PG) ****

Alexander, a school kid, thinks he is only one who has bad days. His family also realizes that they, too, can have bad days. This hilarious movie is great for laughs and teaches us some days will be bad but others will be good! Always stay positive! This story is good for anyone of any age and you are certain to feel happy after you see this movie.
