BRIAN'S EYE ON MOVIES Broadway Play Review : Beauty and the Beast

This is a story about a young prince who refuses to help an old beggar woman. She gives him a single rose and puts a spell on him and changes him into beast. Unless he learns to show love and compassion by the time the last petal of the rose falls, he will be doomed to a life of misery without love. This play is about the choices he makes and what difficulties he finds along the way. The music and the acting is great.

This play has a message for all ages of people. It's all about making the right choices in life and that beauty can be found within all of us.
